Sonya Mallard

Board Member

A native of Harlem, Ny, Sonya Mallard, moved to Brevard County in 1997 where she is currently Coordinator of the Harry T. & Harriette V. Moore Memorial Park & Museum in Mims, Florida. In this role, Sonya is dedicated to building relationships and sharing the legacy of the Moores. She passionately motivates and inspires audiences by highlighting the significant contributions of Harry T. & Harriette V. Moore, including their efforts to educate students on voting, investigate lynchings, and advocate for equal pay for teachers in Florida.

Sonya is also a writer and editor for the local African American newspaper, "Ebony News Today," and a blogger for the Wells Project, where she has authored over 25 blogs on HIV awareness. With over 30 years of experience, she is a dedicated HIV/AIDS educator, tester, and activist.

Her community involvement extends to serving as Vice Chair of the Board of Adjustments, 1st Vice President of the National Congress of Black Women, 2nd Vice President of the North Brevard Democratic Club, and Treasurer of the Space Coast Black Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors. Additionally, Sonya is a board member of Project Response and the Brevard Cultural Alliance, and she is the Co-CEO of S&T Health Consulting Group, Inc. (Brevard AIDS Services).

Sonya's most fulfilling work lies in her commitment to advancing social justice and HIV education, impacting and improving the lives of countless individuals through her advocacy and educational efforts.

Sonya currently resides in Titusville with her husband, Paul. She is a proud mother of two children and grandmother to two grandchildren.
